LITTLESTOWN JOINT BOARD CHANGES VIEW ON ADAMS PLAN

The Littlestown Joint School Board Tuesday evening unanimously voted to reverse its opinion of several months ago concerning the school reorganization program and will ask the state Board of Education to favor a single district for Adams County.

The decision came after open discussion in which the entire board voted to notify the state and county boards of the change of opinion.

The Littlestown board is the first joint board in the county to take official action favoring a single district. The date to appeal the county board's recommendation for six districts for Adams County has expired but the Littlestown board hopes its letter will help to influence the state board to reconsider the county's recommendation.

East Berlin, Mt. Pleasant and Straban boards have appealed the county's decision and have asked for a single district. Conewago Twp. and McSherrystown have appealed the county board's decision for other reasons.

"PRACTICAL" APPEAL

The discussion resulted from a letter to the board announcing the dates for public hearings in Harrisburg on October 9 for appeals from the six-district plan recommended in May by the county board on a 3-2 vote.

Fred Hartlaub, newly-elected member of the county board and a director from Mt. Pleasant Twp. in the Littlestown School District, suggested that the board may wish to reconsider its original action on "a practical basis."

A straw vote of members two months ago showed 12 against and eight supporting a single district.

ELECT TEACHER

In other business the board elected Mrs. Greta M. Missen, Gettysburg R. 4, wife of a seminary, to teach Third Grade at a salary of $4,900. Paul E. King, supervising principal, reported that all faculty positions now are filled.

The board approved bills in the amount of $54,762.33 for payment after the treasurer's report showed a balance of $61,394.46.

The meeting adjourned at 9 o'clock.

William E. Myers, Fairfield R. 1, injured his back when the brakes of his truck failed on Route 16, and the 1950 model truck he was driving crashed into the rear of a car and came to rest on a lawn after "clipping" the front porch of a home, police said.

Myers, driving his truck west on Route 16, crashed into the rear of a car driven by Thomas E. 2,500 ATTEND FAIR OPENING

The largest opening night crowd in a number of years, approximately 2,500, attended Tuesday evening's session of the South Mountain Fair. W. Clayton Jester, vice president of the fair association, reported today.

Jester added that the displays this year are "better than ever," particularly the cattle of the 4-H youths which were among the exhibits judged this morning.

Flowers and farm products, two divisions expected to be cut by the drought, startled the fair officials by becoming larger than ever before. Jester said additional space had to be provided for the farm crop displays and in the flowers division, where some species were scarce because of dry weather, their place was more than taken by an abundance of other species of flowers.

Jester praised the Gettysburg Community Chorus and Hildegard Hamme, who provided the entertainment Tuesday night.

Judging was being completed this afternoon. Tonight the entertainment will be provided by the Biglerville High School Band.

Name McPherson Master In Divorce

Attorney Donald P. MacPherson has been appointed by the county court as master in the divorce action of Ruth E. (Sorlie) Shindecker against Sterling K. Shindecker.

The court also handed down an order discontinuing a divorce action brought by Dorna Joy (Smyth) Sparkman against James Warren Sparkman on the petition of Mrs. Sparkman that it was found she had not had one year's residence in the state when the action was started. At the same time a new action in divorce was started to replace the one discontinued, since she has now had the year of residency.

The court "forever barred" the heirs of Reuben Roth, the people of Biglerville and the Biglerville borough from any rights to certain property of the Adams County Fruit Packing and Distributing Co. of Biglerville in an action to quiet title. The action was brought when it was found that, in early plots of land now held by the packing company, alleys were provided. The alleys never came into actual existence, but the action was necessary to clear the title.

Chrysler Signs 3-Year Contract With Union To Avoid Threatened Strike

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union reached a dramatic last-minute agreement today on a precedent-setting contract which includes pensions of up to $400 a month and improved health benefits.

The three-year contract, reached a scant 55 minutes before a scheduled 10 a.m. (EST) nationwide strike by Chrysler's 74,000 UAW members, was termed by union President Walter Reuther as "the most historic agreement in the history of the American labor movement with respect to pensions and security for workers."

The contract agreement, announced jointly by Reuther and Chrysler Corp. Vice President John Leary, is expected to set the pattern for the union's negotiations with General Motors, Ford and American Motors.

Spokesmen for Ford, GM and AMC had no immediate comment on the UAW-Chrysler pact which calls for an over-all economic package averaging 54 cents an hour for each worker during the three-year life of the agreement.

CUMBERLAND ASKS COUNCIL ABOUT SEWER SYSTEM PLANS

Two of Cumberland Township's supervisors attended the Gettysburg borough council meeting Tuesday evening in the engine house to outline to council the township's current activities in regard to sewer systems and to suggest that the town and township may wish to seek closer coordination in future planning.

Supervisor Adrian Martin said: "Cumberland is open to talk—anywhere it might go."

Martin and Supervisor Howard Wright said they were "not asking any answers," but felt they should inform council of present activities of Cumberland Township in relation to possible sewage systems and disposal plants in the Reading Lane-Windbriar Lane area of Cumberland Twp. and the Grandview Terrace area. "We don't know if you have any future plans for revamping your sewer system," Martin said, "but we thought we ought to inform you of what is going on in the township with the thought that if you are thinking of improving your system you may wish to give consideration to the inclusion of Cumberland Township."

TO MEET AUTHORITY

The two township supervisors said they have scheduled a meeting with the Gettysburg Municipal Authority Thursday morning to discuss the township's plans and determine if Gettysburg may have plans for enlargement that might permit Cumberland to run its sewer systems into the borough disposal plant rather than construct several disposal plants in the township. Martin said: (Continued on Page 10)

DOGS AND BIKES GET WARNINGS FROM WEAVER

Mayor William G. Weaver told Gettysburg borough council at its meeting Tuesday evening in the engine house that dogs and bicycles have "reached a point where, after warnings, prosecution will be made."

The opening of schools has "brought out the dogs in large numbers, following their masters and mistresses to school. At the school the dogs meet their fellow dogs," the mayor noted and then "in their glee jump on small children, frightening them. So far none of the youngsters has been bitten but the danger is there."

The mayor said he has ordered police to determine the owners of the dogs running loose. The officers are instructed to then give the owners a personal warning to obey the ordinance that prohibits dogs from being off the owner's property except while under control. If the warnings are not heeded, then prosecution will be brought.

The second problem, Mayor Weaver said, are complaints that grown boys and girls are riding bicycles on the sidewalks and endangering pedestrians. The mayor said he has ordered police to enforce the ordinance that controls bicycle riding. The ordinance provides: "No person or persons shall be allowed to ride any bicycle upon the sidewalk or pavements of the borough except when necessary to cross said sidewalks or pavement." The ordinance provides: "No person or persons shall be allowed to ride any bicycle upon the sidewalks at the required time."

The mayor said it is hoped that parents will warn their children against riding bicycles on the sidewalks.

GOP BEGINS TO RAISE FUNDS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvania Republicans will begin a $4.5 million fund raising campaign next Monday with the help of Senate minority leader Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.

Frank C. P. McGinn, chairman of the GOP Finance Committee of Pennsylvania, said Tuesday Dirksen was selected to speak at the luncheon starting the campaign because he would appeal both to supporters of the GOP presidential candidate, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, and to moderates of the party.

McGinn said more than 300 prominent contributors and fund-raisers have been invited to the Monday luncheon.

McGinn also said that former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Scranton of Pennsylvania will be the main speakers at the finance committee's annual $100 a plate dinner Oct. 29 in Harrisburg.

NEW HEARING FOR BUFALINO

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A motion to subpoena Joseph Valachi, former Senate witness on the alleged Cosa Nostra crime syndicate, was rejected Tuesday at a deportation hearing for Russell Bufalino, Kingston textile manufacturer.

Federal examiner William Taffet denied a motion by Jack Wasserman, Bufalino's attorney to subpoena Valachi because testimony linking Valachi to Bufalino had no "sinister purpose."

The hearings reopened Tuesday after an adjournment since June 4.

Bufalino is appealing a deportation order issued in 1958. He had testified earlier that he had attended a 1957 meeting in Apalachin, N.Y., which the Justice Department labeled a crime convention.

Wasserman said that testimony by Valachi would settle the question of whether the meeting was a crime convention or the social gathering which those in attendance claimed.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson has announced a new White House garden will be dedicated to Mrs. John F. Kennedy. It had been planned but not completed before President Kennedy's assassination last Nov. 22.

An announcement through Mrs. Johnson's press office Tuesday said that the garden would be completed in mid-October.

The cost of about $10,000 is being borne by nongovernmental funds of the White House Historical Association, which finances such projects from the sale of the White House guidebook.

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Department spokesman Robert McCloskey said Tuesday that "we regret the action taken by the British" in extending long-term credit to the Soviet Union. McCloskey said the U.S. position against long-term credits to Communist countries is unchanged.

The British granted the Soviet Union credit for 15 years in signing a contract Monday for the sale of a fiber plant valued at about $85 million.

Philly Riot Area Returns To Normal

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — North Central Philadelphia returned to normal Tuesday night, the first without a curfew since rioting and looting erupted there the weekend of Aug. 28.

Police Lt. John McHugh called the night "extremely quiet." He said there were no riot-connected incidents in the 24-hour period since Mayor James Tate lifted the curfew earlier Tuesday.

McHugh said there were 22 arrests Tuesday night. Five boys and a young man were arrested today, charged with carrying to a hiding place loot stolen in the rioting.

TO REVALUE PLANT

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — U.S. Steel Corporation's Fairless Works plant will be revalued as a result of a court decision. Bucks County commissioners said Tuesday the county's appraisal firm, Cole-Layer-Trumble Co., of Dayton, Ohio, will make the study because of a court decision on Aug. 14 which reduced the plant's assessments for 1960 to 1963 by $32 million.

MISSISSIPPI DEMOCRATS TO ACT TODAY

By JAMES SAGGUS

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The 1964 state Democratic convention — which has been in recess — convened here today to cast party lines aside and insure a Republican presidential victory in the state.

Such a move will be accomplished by endorsing a slate of electors under the regular Democratic label and pledged to the Johnson-Humphrey ticket.

The reason such a simple, normal move will virtually assure Sen. Barry Goldwater of the state's electoral vote is because conservative Mississippi will have a clear choice.

GOVERNOR ACTS

Until Tuesday night, a move was underway to get the convention to endorse "democratic electors for Goldwater," a plan which would have resulted in a third ticket.

Loyalist Democrats would have had to petition the state — with only 1,000 names required — to get the Johnson-Humphrey ticket on the November ballot, if the convention had not endorsed the President.

Gov. Paul Johnson, titular head of the state party, however, announced Tuesday night he would work to have the reconvening convention endorse a slate of "loyalist" electors for Johnson-Humphrey. The third ticket idea was dropped after fears were expressed it would split the vote for Goldwater and give the election to the Johnson-Humphrey ticket.

The Mississippi convention first met July 28 but recessed without taking any action to await developments at the national convention in Atlantic City.

Freed Pair Will Face U. S. Charges

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Bonds of $25,000 have been posted by two white men held in the slaying of a Washington, D.C., Negro educator.

The men, Joseph Howard Sims, 41, and Cecil William Myers, 25, were freed from the Clarke County jail Tuesday. They and two other Athens men face federal charges that they violated the civil rights of the educator, Lemuel Penn, who was killed July 11 by a shotgun blast from a passing car.

Sims and Myers were acquitted at a trial in nearby Danielsville last week of state charges that they murdered Penn. A federal grand jury is expected to consider the civil rights charges in February. The charge carries a maximum penalty of 10 years in jail and a $5,000 fine.

Girl Wins Island Off Maine Coast

SOUTH PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Like to own a desert island? A South Portland girl has won one.

West Brown Cow Island is in Maine's Casco Bay, four miles from the mainland.

There isn't even a tree on the two-acre rock. Just grass and scrub growth.

"It looks like a whale," says Madeline A. Hourihan, 22, a secretary who won the island in a contest sponsored by a car dealer.

U. S. Nuclear Ship Sails From Sweden

MALMOE, Sweden (AP) — The U.S. nuclear ship Savannah is en route home after being delayed by technical trouble.

It had been scheduled to sail Monday. A statement from the ship said its nuclear reactor was shut down to check for a possible malfunction. It was later discovered that the fault lay with instruments used to sample air near the reactor, the statement said, and "the nuclear aspects of the ship were not involved in any way."

Accuses Scott Of Negative Approach

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gen. eviee Blatt, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate, says her opponent, Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., has "adopted a negative approach toward solving" problems created by automation and technological change.

Miss Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, told 100 persons at the Engineers Club Tuesday, "my opponent evidently is not very far at heart from the Republican presidential candidate in matters of this kind."

"He has adopted a negative approach toward solving these new problems that could work grave consequences on the majority of the people if we don't act positively now."

Miss Blatt said the GOP presidential nominee, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, has stated that the only reason many persons are not educated today and are on relief is because they have "low intelligence or low ambitions."

URGES HELP FOR AMISH

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 50 Amish leaders from Pennsylvania headed here today to press for House support of a Senate-approved amendment which would exempt the state's Older Order Amish from the Social Security program.

In a statement placed in the Congressional Record Tuesday, Rep. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., called on the House to support the amendment, which was attached by the Senate to a bill which would increase Social Security benefits.

"I feel strongly that our government must not ride roughshod over the religious rights of a minority," said Schweiker. "I urge my colleagues to join the fight to retain this important amendment in the bill."

The Social Security bill which contains the Amish exemption is expected to go to a special conference committee next week to iron out differences in the House and Senate versions.

5 KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

MANILA (AP) — A U.S. Navy patrol plane with 13 crewmen on board crashed in the South China Sea Tuesday, the U.S. Navy announced tonight. A spokesman said five men were killed and the others rescued.

The plane, a twin-engine P2 Neptune, was on an operational patrol flight, the Navy said. The destroyer Maddox, operating in the vicinity, picked up the survivors, a spokesman at Sangley Point Naval Air Station said. The Maddox was the Navy ship engaged in the Gulf of Tonkin crisis last month.

The cause of the crash is not known and an investigation has been ordered.

The spokesman said the plane was en route to Sangley. He said he did not know where it came from. He said 13 is the normal crew for the aircraft.

Names of the victims were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

A council-wide event is planned for April 23-25, 1965, in the Memorial Building, York Fairgrounds, for members of the council. Adams County troops will be represented at the event.

WASHINGTON (AP) — House leaders hope to bring up President Johnson's proposal for Social Security health care for a crucial vote next Wednesday.

The vote would be on whether to instruct House members of a Senate-House conference to back the Senate-passed health care proposal. Unless the House conferees are so instructed, most members believe the conference would reject the health care plan.

The health care plan — an amendment to a bill raising Social Security benefits — was passed 49 to 44 by the Senate last week. There has never been a test vote on it in the entire House.

TEST WATER AT FAIRFIELD

Water samples from the new 212-foot well at Fairfield will be taken today by state health authorities and a report of the analysis is expected within the next five days. Wilbert Fleming, water superintendent, said the well has been pumped for 24 hours, according to state requirements, to eliminate surface and other possible contamination. He says he is confident the water will pass the state tests.

Fleming indicated that the well will be in operation to relieve the water shortage in the borough within the next 10 days. A 200-foot line will be laid from the well to the reservoir as soon as a satisfactory report is received.

The water crisis continues to be critical, Fleming said, with the opening today of the public schools where approximately 825 pupils are enrolled. He again urged residents to conserve the present supply by using as little water as possible until the new well is connected.

EVACUATE AREA

The St. Augustine peninsula was almost entirely evacuated by its some 3,000 residents late Tuesday and early this morning, many leaving via National Guard trucks and public school buses.

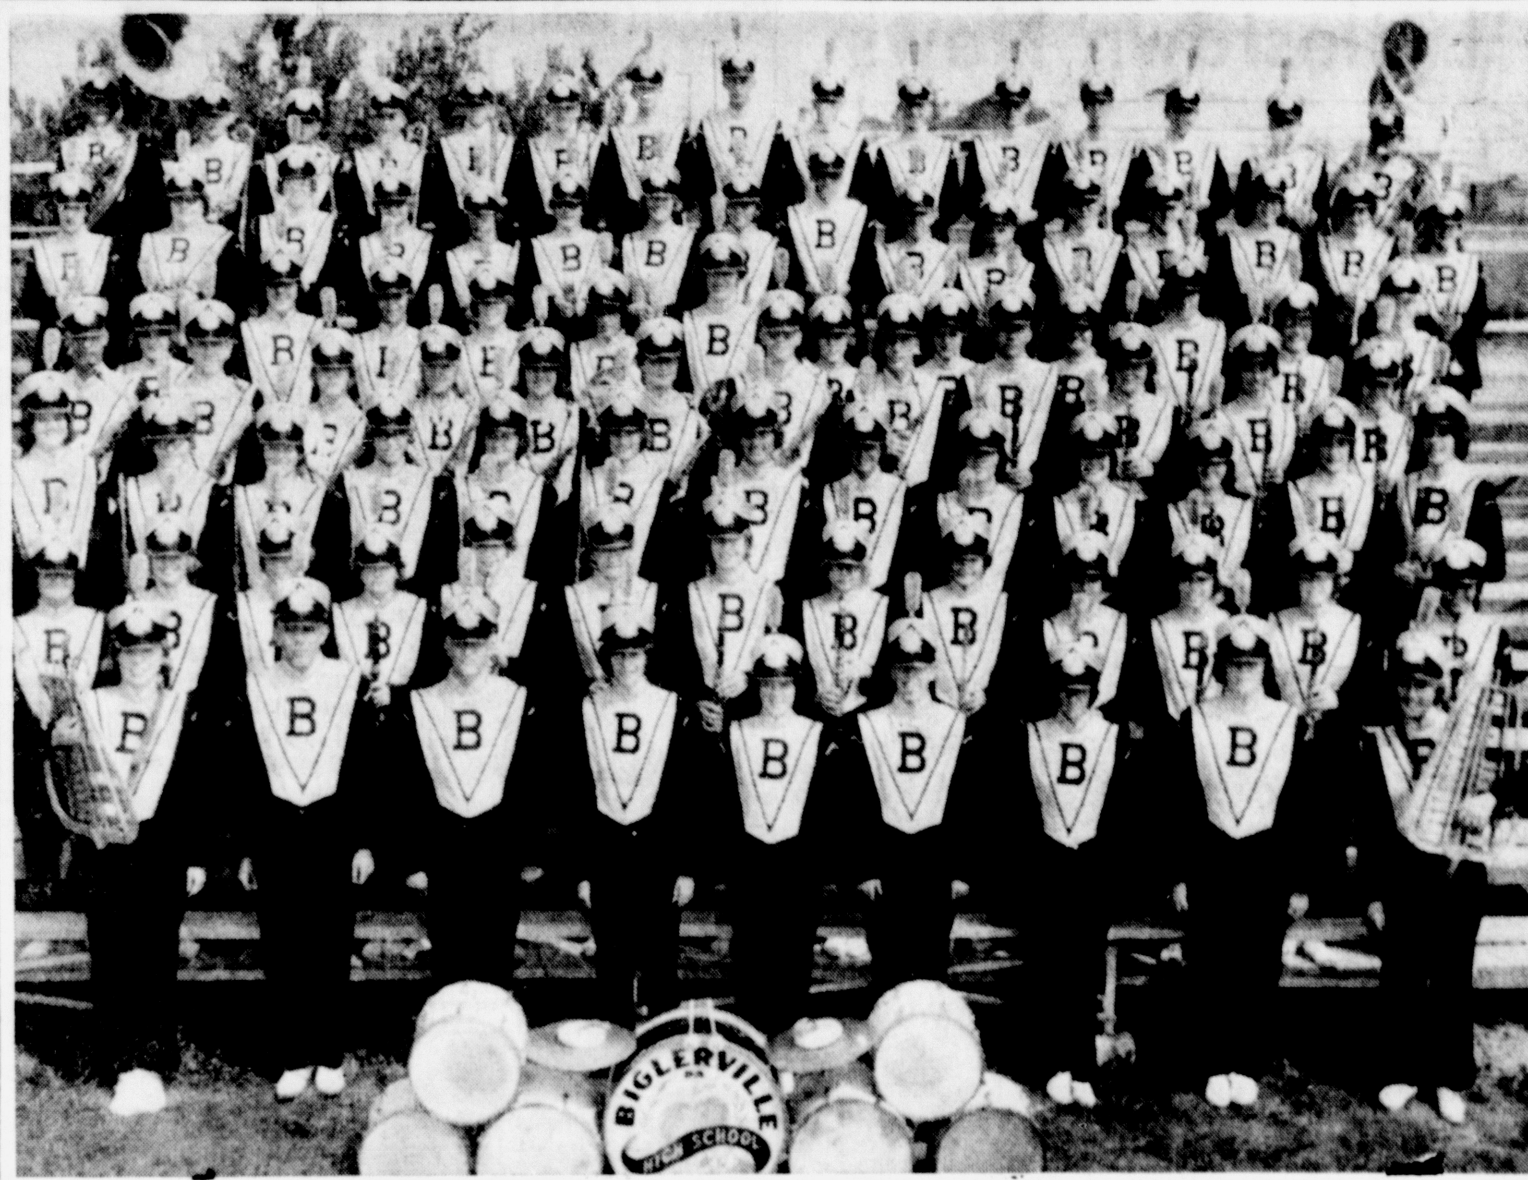

"There will always be some people who will refuse to move," said city Civil Defense Director Fred Lillis. "All we can do is let them stay."

The Weather Bureau said tides up to 10 feet were running ahead of the massive hurricane in a small area north of its eye.

Hurricane and gale winds raged over 200,000 square miles of the Atlantic — an area 50,000 square miles larger than California, the nation's third largest state.

Apparently out of danger were 5,000 persons who ignored the warnings of Civil Defense workers and chose to ride out the storm in ocean-front homes at Daytona Beach, about 50 miles south of St. Augustine.

A tide of about six feet hit the Daytona Beach peninsula early this morning but did not damage any buildings. Police cautioned against sightseeing on the beach, however, warning that the storm danger had not passed.

but how rare are the finishers —
In a horse race there is but one that gets the united applause of the crowd. Many of the good starters don't even "show." I once came across this line:"And as he spoke his wings would now and then spread, as he meant to fly, and then close again."Many a man figuratively flaps his wings, struts, makes a lot of false moves and noise, then goes no farther. He has the idea, but not the will, or character, to go ahead and finish his flight. On the other hand there are those who make the start and fail. Then they start again — and again. They they perhaps get their "second wind" and high they soar — beyond their own, and the expectations of others.Our potentialities are hidden.
The Creator endowed us with them, but we have to dig, dive, or bomb, our way to them. We never know what we are going to find within our hidden selves.
We often discover ourselves unexpectedly. Heroic joy is that joy that comes to us unaware after strife, sorrow, or suffering.The old masters in art took time. They were in no hurry to finish. And the great classic writers were not concerned with "book club" offers, and huge printing orders. The money box had no thrill for them. They wrote that their expression might live. The honored memory of many now live by a single book — a lifetime of toil. Few wanted Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" when first published. It took years before America, and the world, awoke to the rare beauty in Thoreau's "A Week on the Concord and Merrimack Rivers." Only 200 copies were sold in the first few years. Today a single copy is the pride of any book lover, that is, that first edition, published at his own expense in 1849. It even took its author years to pay off that printing debt!But that did not deter Thoreau.
He went on about his work, studying nature and all its wonderful revelations, and wrote many other books that today are the treasurers of literature.
He was a rare finisher. The work of the Finishers lives on!Tomorrow's subject: "Upside

Yankees Beat Twins To Tighten AL Pennant Race As Dodgers Defeat Phils

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The American League pennant contenders have gone through four fifties, but each day makes it more difficult for one of them to break out the champagne.

With less than one-fifth of the season remaining, Baltimore leads the see-saw battle, but Chicago is only one-half game behind and New York is just one game back. Only six percentage points separate the Orioles from the Yankees.

The race became the tightest it's been since Aug. 5 when the Yankees edged Minnesota 2-1 Tuesday night.

STRONG YANKEE SURGE

Only 18 days ago, even many of the most astute baseball observers were counting out the Yankees. They were in third place then, too, but they were 5½ games from the top.

Since that time, they have won 12, the last five in a row, and lost just four. In the same period, the Orioles won eight of 17 while the White Sox were 9-10.

The Yankees now have two more games remaining than the Orioles—25 to 23—and are even in losses. In other words, if the Yankees win their two extra games, they would have the same record as Baltimore.

CHISOX AT DISADVANTAGE

The White Sox, on the other hand, have 20 games left and have lost two more games than the other contenders, putting them at a statistical disadvantage.

None of the teams plays each other the rest of the season. That is, unless they meet in a playoff.

The Yankees nosed out Minnesota on Elston Howard's run-scoring single in the seventh inning. Roger Maris started the rally with a double and eventually reached third on a sacrifice bunt by Joe Pepitone. Howard brought him home with a single to center field.

5TH WIN FOR ROOKIE

Maris also figured in the Yankees' first-inning run. He singled Tony Kubek to third from where he scored on Mickey Mantle's sacrifice fly. The Twins tied it in their half of the first on singles by Rich Rollins and Zoilo Versalles and a pair of force plays.

Rookie right-hander Mel Stottlemyre scattered nine hits for his fifth victory against two defeats. Camilo Pascual suffered his 11th setback in 24 decisions.

PHILS NIPPED

In the National League's only game, Los Angeles nipped first-place Philadelphia 3-2 on run-scoring doubles by Jim Gilliam and John Roseboro in the first inning.

Maury Wills started the first with a single and stole second. Gilliam doubled in Wills and went to third as Willie Davis singled. Both runners then came home on Roseboro's double.

The Phillies scored a run in the second on a sacrifice fly by Gus Triandos and one in the seventh on Ruben Amaro's single following a double by Triandos.

Warren C. Giles is serving his 13th year as National League president.

FRICK WARNED ABOUT RISK OF FEDERAL SUIT

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—Commissioner Ford Frick has been advised by his attorneys that baseball would be taking a "calculated risk" of a possible antitrust suit if the American League club owners formally approve the sale of the New York Yankees to the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The league club owners, with their representatives, met with President Joe Cronin and a battery of lawyers today to vote on the sale of 80 per cent of the Yankees to CBS for $11,200,000 last month.

The vote of eight of the 10 owners is needed for approval.

Frick, from his home in Scarsdale, N.Y., declined to comment on the report given exclusively to the Associated Press.

"INHERENT DANGER"

According to the informant, attorneys Paul Porter of the commissioner's office and Lou Carroll of the National League advised Frick that "there was inherent danger" in welcoming a public service such as CBS into the inner confines of baseball.

"There could be a danger of antitrust suits," Frick was advised. "We think there is a calculated risk."

At the time of the sale, last Aug. 14, a storm of criticism, both from people in government as well as in baseball, developed over the entry of the television and radio networks into big league ownership. Congressmen promised they would press for a closer scrutiny into baseball's exemption from antitrust laws.

Owners Charles O. Finley of the Kansas City Athletics and Arthur Allyn of the Chicago White Sox, the only dissenters in a telegraphic vote of the league club owners to approve the sale, charged that such a vote was contrary to the league's constitution and demanded a formal meeting.

In this way they were surprisingly supported by co-owner Dan Topping of the Yankees who said he felt it was in the best interest of the league that such a meeting be held.

Another supporter was Dr. Frank Stanton, CBS president, who stated he felt it imperative that whatever action is necessary be taken to set the record straight.

Stanton maintained that the network had entered the transaction "in a spirit of good will and motivated by genuine and constructive interest in the future of baseball." He added that before signing the contract, CBS officials had been assured by the American and its legal counsel that the process by which the sale was made satisfied all legal requirements.

MAHAFFEY'S LOSS
Too soon, or too late, both were cut down, and the Phils' single run in the seventh, on a Gus Triandos double and a Ruben Amaro single wasn't enough to overcome the early Dodger lead.

The big blow in the Dodger first was John Roseboro's opposite field double, which scored two.

Phils starter Art Mahaffey couldn't finish the first inning and suffered his seventh loss in 19 decisions. Brewer, with help from Ron Perranoski, recorded his second win against two losses.

CHARGERS AND BILLS ARE TOP AFL CHOICES

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The San Diego Chargers and the Buffalo Bills are the pre-season picks to fight it out for the American Football League championship Oct. 26 at Buffalo after the most exciting season in the league's five-year history.

Sid Gillman's Chargers, hailed as a super team after their 51-10 rout of Boston last January, figure to win it again unless Tobin Rote's arm fails him. Gillman's champions can not afford to be complacent, for both Kansas City and Oakland appear capable of challenging for the Western Division crown.

Denver also should be improved with Jack Lee at quarterback. The Eastern Division looks like another wild scramble, with no definite stickout. If Cookie Gilchrist stays healthy, the Bills appear the best of the lot despite a questionable pass defense. Houston is experimenting with rookies in its deep defense under its new coach, Sammy Baugh, and could be in trouble if anything happened to 36-year-old George Blanda. New York stakes it all on Dick Wood, who has a record of knee trouble. Boston, the defending division champs on a 26-8 playoff victory over Buffalo, must rely on its defensive unit.

Here's the way it looks from here:

WESTERN DIVISION —
1. San Diego
2. Kansas City
3. Oakland
4. Denver

EASTERN DIVISION
1. Buffalo
2. Houston
3. New York
4. Boston

The Chargers finally won their first title last season with an 11-3 record. Gillman has the same well-balanced offense with Keith Lincoln and Paul Lowe to run the ball and fleet Lance Alworth and Dave Kocourek to catch Rote's passes. If Rote's sore arm acts up, the Chargers will drop back to John Hadl.

Ron Mix is the key to the offensive line and big Ernie Ladd and Earl Faison lead the defense.

CHIEFS PRIMED
Don't sell Kansas City short. Hank Stram's Chiefs, the flop of the year in 1963, are primed for a comeback. Stram has the horses with Curt McClintock, Jack Spikes, and Abner Haynes, plus rookie Mack Lee Hill. Pass-catcher Chris Burford is due back before long. The defense should be better with Bobby Bell and Buck Buchanan in their second year.

At Davis, AFL coach of the year in 1963, will be in the contention again with his Raiders, especially with the acquisition of halfback Billy Cannon, one-time star of the Houston Oilers who had been hobbled by injuries in the past two seasons.

The Raiders got Cannon in a trade for three players — guard Sonny Bishop, fullback Bob Jackson and offensive end Dobie Craig.

EDGE ON TALENT

A healthy, determined Cannon would give Davis a tremendous one-two running punch with Clemon Daniels, the AFL's leading ground gainer of 1963, to go with his aerial circus headed by quarterback Tom Flores and pass-catching Art Powell.

The addition of Lee, from Houston, gives Denver something it did not have last year. Lee to Lionel Taylor should be a tough combination.

Buffalo and Houston have a big edge on talent in the East, for wealthy owners have stocked up for years in the draft. The Bills would have won last year if Gilchrist and Wray Carlton had been available all year. Jack Kemp and Daryle Addison.

Lamonica are a formidable passing threat. Defensive tackle Tom Sestak is a standout but the pass defense is leaky.

FINE RECEIVERS

Houston unloaded Cannon, who has been tiffing with Baugh, and will rely on Charlie Tolar Jackson, a 6-foot-2, 240-pounder, and rookie Sid Blanks of Texas A & I for its running.

Baugh has problems in the secondary and must go with inexperienced linebacks.

Matt Snell, a rookie from Ohio State, should help the Jets' ground game but they must count on passing to do the job.

Wood has a fine exhibition season and he has some fine receivers in Bake Turner and Don Maynard. Defense can be a problem here, too, although Weeb Ewbank's boys looked good in an exhibition win over San Diego.

Mike Holovak always does a great job at Boston but the Pats still have to count on 34-year-old Babe Parilli and Larry Garron.

The defense is solid with Houston Antwine, Larry Eisenhauer, Nick Buoniconti and Tommy Addison.

PLAYER DIES

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Herbert Clausen, a 17-year-old guard on a high school football team in nearby Lititz, died Tuesday night less than a week after he collapsed following a practice session.

It was the second death in Pennsylvania in three weeks linked to football practice sessions and the fifth in the nation.

Clausen, who weighed 145 pounds and was a member of the team at Warwick Union High School, lapsed into a coma last Wednesday in a locker room and never regained consciousness.

An autopsy will be performed to determine the cause of death. A spokesman at Lancaster General Hospital said Clausen had a clot in an artery in the brain when he was admitted.

A neurosurgeon at the hospital said the death definitely was connected with football. He said the blood clot could have been caused by dehydration or by a blow on the neck.

Older Child Needs To Share In Attention For New Baby

HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

The three-year-old child who cries, "Mother, look at me. I'm standing on one foot," is trying to get across to his mother that he wants attention as well as the new baby. This week while visiting my sister and her new baby I observed how a new baby changes things for others in the family.

It's easy to understand how the child feels. He had all of his mother's attention for three years, then suddenly he has none of it. It's natural that he blames the new baby for taking his mother away from him.

It isn't easy to give time to the older child who has learned to do things for himself when the baby needs everything done for him. However, the older child must have attention, or he'll begin to show behavior problems rooted in jealousy.

One way to help the older child get his own attention is for his mother to let him help with the baby, but only when she is there herself. The older child can hand her such items as pins and towels.

Much more important than his help is that she can talk to him and listen to him while she is caring for the baby. This makes the older child feel he has an important place with her. Although she gives attention to the baby, she also shows interest in him.

D SCOURAGE DROPOUTS
Education and training are necessary for today's young people in building their earning power.

Young people between the ages of 16 and 21 have traditionally had a hard time getting jobs and the situation is not getting any brighter. Today a high school education is often the minimum requirement even for unskilled jobs.

High school dropouts not only have trouble finding jobs, but also holding them. The jobs they get are among the lower paying ones, and dropouts are less likely to work themselves into better jobs. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the rate of unemployment last October was nearly twice as high for 1963 dropouts as for 1963 graduates.

An earlier survey showed that many high school graduates were able to upgrade their skills within a few years after they left school, while dropouts continued to hold the same kind of job they started with.

Among persons aged 16 to 21, dropouts tend to be in occupations which have the lowest wages and the highest unemployment rates. Girls who dropped out of high school were more likely to be operatives, or household or service workers, while high school graduates often had white collar jobs.

COMFORT IN MEN'S SHOES

Men's shoes, featuring both comfort and good looks, are fashionable in dressy and casual styles. Men who intend to do some serious walking should look for style and warm-weather comfort in the shoes they buy.

Whether walking shoes are dressy or casual, they should not be heavy. Soles should be flexible and not less than three-eighths of an inch thick.

For walking comfort, a man should buy shoes from a salesperson who knows how to fit them properly. When standing, the widest part of the shoe should be in the widest part of the foot, not a little in front or in back of it. Also the toes should not be bunched or cramped in the toe box of the shoe.

For complete walking comfort, the shoe should be ventilated by punched-through perforations, mesh inserts, or woven leather plugs or vamps.

Other comfort features may include a special arch or metatarsal arch support under the ball of the foot, soft cushiony insoles, and nylon-covered cushioned sides. Insoles that mold to the exact shape of the foot and scientifically designed ripple soles or "rocker action" rubber soles are other features many experienced walkers want in their shoes.

Hurricane Briefs

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — It's an unusual hurricane season for Florida this year.

Florida has never had two hurricanes hit as close together as Cleo and Dora, at least as far back as Weather Bureau records go.

Cleo smashed into Florida Aug. 28 and Dora hit 10 days later.

The nearest double hurricane blow on record was in 1947 when one struck on Sept. 18 and another Oct. 12.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — While thousands were fleeing Hurricane Dora, three Denver College students drove nonstop for 24 hours from New York just to see the storm.

They obtained a room in the otherwise empty 30-year-old St. Augustine Beach Hotel.

"We're determined to sit out the storm," said Maxwell Mac-

GOVERNMENT BEEF PROGRAM AIDS INDUSTRY

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government purchases of beef to bolster cattle prices and to provide meat for needy persons and the school lunch program now total 203 million pounds. The cost: $115 million.

The purchase program was started in March when cattle prices were at a low level. Although prices have advanced some since that time, the department is continuing in the market. Purchases last week totaled 13.8 million pounds.

Processors have been asked by the agriculture department to submit additional bids this week.

The agency also has bought 22.7 million pounds of fresh frozen turkeys for the school lunch program at a cost of $7.27 million.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The foreign agricultural service reports that U.S. soybeans appear to have a bright market future in Norway.

It seems likely, the service said in a report, that Norway's whale and herring oils industry cannot keep pace with the country's increasing demand for oils for margarine.

The per capita consumption of fats in Norway, mostly in the form of margarine, averages 60 pounds a year, one of the highest in the world.

Imports of whole soybeans and soybean meal are duty free. Soybean oil is subject to a small duty to protect the Norwegian processor.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The way is being paved for exports of poultry parts to Italy, now the third best foreign customer for frozen U.S. turkeys.

The agriculture department reports that Italian officials are in the United States inspecting facilities and procedures for processing both poultry and red meats. Currently, Italy prohibits its imports of all poultry parts.

The European common market has opened the door wider for U.S. frozen poultry parts. It has reduced the import duty nearly 8.5 cents a pound.

TO PLAN JOBS FOR DROPOUTS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Board of Education has joined the War on Poverty with a proposed $1 million program to give jobs to 1,000 school dropouts or unemployed youths.

The board approved the program Tuesday. Dr. C. Taylor Whittier, superintendent of schools, said the federal government will pay 90 per cent of the program "which we hope to have working by Thanksgiving."

Youths from 16 to 22 years old will be employed "in almost any legitimate job that can be done," said Whittier. These would range from school librarians and teachers' aides to landscape gardening, he said. The youths would be paid 80 per cent of the normal rate for such work.

Whittier said he planned to apply for the funds immediately even though the program must wait for Congress to appropriate funds for the Economic Opportunity Act.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

TOPPING FASHION. Fall hats are simply terrific. And selections that look terrific on you should be no problem. Designers have gone all out to create a choice of individually flattering silhouettes.

The better to suit your figger, hats range from doll size to dashing proportions. The better to flatter your face, shapes are posed in a multitude of ways—forward, straight, back and profile. Among the shape-makers, count malleable berets, sloping cloches, tailored bretons and sailors, Henry Higgins fedoras, con-touring helmets and caps, and domed turbans with a back twist.

To assure a striking blend of hats and costumes, there is a grandiose assortment of colors and fabrics. Rich tones—warm reds, greens, browns, pinks and turquoise—dominate with black and white coming on strong.

Materials run the gamut of supple felts, wools, leathers, jerseys, mousses, feathers, satins and velvets. Plus—a big one—furs and fakes that look real.

If you would make the most of this largesse, keep these points in mind: 1. Choose shapes with lines that counteract those in your face you could do without. For example, around face needs the counteraction of shapes with straight or diagonal lines. 2. Try tilting a hat to render it more becoming. 3. Be sure the proportions of a hat are in balance with your own. 4. In mating a hat to a costume, work for interest. . . . Wear a deep pink hat with plum costumes or combine furry and smooth textures.

You are not lost to youthful beauty because of dark circles, puffiness, or wrinkles around the eyes. These problems can be brought under control by proper skin care, cosmetic applications, health habits and facial expressions. Methods are detailed in my leaflet, THE EYES OF YOUTH.

To obtain your copy, write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Scribe Offers Some Timely Views On Return To Work

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals is returning to the job after a three-day holiday weekend.

Some, of course, can't stand to be away from the usual routine of office or plant life. They return to it with glad neighs, as an old horse to its stall.

Others of us, on the other hand, need a little reindoc-trination upon having to come back to the chafing of the daily rut. Freedom has made us a bit wild and coltish.

GOOD FOR THE SOUL

We need again to be reconciled to the thought that, while variety may be the spice of life, it is also good for our immortal souls to be back once more plodding through the old salt mine.

In that helpful spirit we have assembled some remarks by the sages of the ages on why work is good for what ails us:

"Where our work is, there let our joy be." — Tertullian.

"As a cure for worrying, work is better than whisky." — Thomas A. Edison.

MORE FAVORABLE VIEWS

"Let us work without protest; it is the only way to make life endurable." — Voltaire.

"Work keeps at bay three great evils: boredom, vice, and need." — Voltaire.

"Work! God wills it. That, it seems to me, is clear." — Gustave Flaubert.

"I don't pity any man who does hard work worth doing. I admire him. I pity the creature who doesn't work, at whichever end of the social scale he may regard himself as being." — Theodore Roosevelt.

Well, there's the case for the joys of good old work. But how about those stubborn rebels who have to be dragged kicking and screaming back to the job?

Here is some consolation for them:

"Never work when hungry." — Hippocrates.

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." — James Howell, 1650.

"Only horses work, and they turn their backs on it." — U.S. hobo proverb.

"I like work; it fascinates me. I can sit and look at it for hours. I love to keep it by me; the idea of getting rid of it nearly breaks my heart." — Jerome K. Jerome.

"Work only tires a woman, but it ruins a man." — African proverb.

"Work is for the birds!" — Hal Boyle.

Marxist Premier Of British Guiana May Fail At Polls

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Dr. Cheddi Jagan has turned in his prophet's robes for the trappings of a practical politician to avert election defeat this fall.

The consensus is that the darkly handsome Marxist prime minister will fail.

But to British Guianese who consider Jagan's ouster a certainty, the forthcoming elections will amount to no more than changing the driver of the same old bus route. This is because of a spreading belief that the wave of racial violence between Guianese of East Indian and of African descent has gone beyond political control.

NEED INTERNAL PEACE

Without internal peace and a common objective, little hope is held for the development of this troubled colony, whether the leader be Jagan or his arch-rival, Negro leader L. Forbes Burnham.

Reflecting the opinion of some prominent Guianese, Police Commissioner Peter Owen said recently: "Neither Jagan nor Burnham can govern without the consent of the other. I'm afraid violence has now gone beyond the realm of politics."

Owen, a ruddy-faced Briton, commands a force of 1,600 men and 600 volunteers, often badly overmatched in 24 months of almost continuous civil strife. Terrorist violence since February has claimed 161 lives, 24 persons are missing, more than 800 wounded and damage to property and crops is estimated at over $2.5 million.

HAS U. S. BACKING

The violence has evolved around the controversial personalities of Jagan and big, erudite Burnham, 41, a lawyer-Shakespearean scholar with a large following among the Negro middle and poor classes, but viewed warily by some intellectuals who say they see in him a thirst for power.

A Socialist and political ex-colleague of Jagan, Burnham bosses the Peoples' National Congress from a small office marked simply "leader." Party members refer to each other as "comrade."

There is little doubt that Burnham enjoys the full support of the U.S. and British governments. Jagan, the first Marxist with a clear-cut mandate in Western Hemisphere history and winner of three elections in the last decade, has been unable to govern successfully because of strong resistance at home, in London and in Washington to his policies. They are regarded as too far left.

MAY DENOUNCE REDS

Jagan apparently has decided the image cast by his left-wing extremist posture has cut too deeply into the ranks of his People's Progressive party following to survive the new election test.

Persons close to the party hierarchy report Jagan and his strategists are considering a public denunciation of communism.

The strategy is to overcome the election maneuver through which the British hope to oust Jagan and eventually grant independence to this long-unwanted colony. Under pressure from Washington, Britain has refused to let British Guiana go while Jagan remains leader.

DEVISE FORMULA

The British Colonial Office has devised a proportional representation formula — bitterly opposed by Jagan and his party — for elections expected sometime in November.

Theoretically, in the absence of a clear majority for any of the three major parties, the prime ministry would go to a coalition — in this case the Burnham party and the arch-conservative United Force party. They got 41.3 and 16 per cent, respectively, of the 1960 vote.

HOPE FOR PEACE

Although their programs have key basic issues—Independence and social reform—in common, Jagan and Burnham differ vigorously on points that have proven irreconcilable and would rule out a coalition at this time.

Confronted with formidable obstacles, Jagan seems bent on recovering lost ground in the urban areas he had neglected in favor of the rice paddies and sugar plantations, where his following borders on the mystical.

Measured against the tempo of racial violence, most of the campaign talk sounds hollow. There are only thin hopes that election results will restore peace.

CANDIDATES IN OPEN CONFLICT FOR ELECTION

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Candidates on both sides of the political fence have fired volleys on such issues as nuclear weapons control, taxes and civil rights in the first major skirmishing of the 1964 presidential election campaign.

President Johnson, while not openly acknowledging it as a campaign speech, took sharp issue with Republican nominee Barry Goldwater on the question of nuclear weapons control in a Labor Day address in Detroit Monday.

In nearby Indiana and Ohio the vice presidential nominees, Republican Rep. William E. Miller of New York and Democratic Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota touched, respectively, on taxes and civil rights among other things.

BARRY'S PLAN

Goldwater didn't mix into the scrap but from the Arizona senator's camp came word that he will outline tonight a plan for reducing taxes by 5 per cent a year for five years if he is elected in November.

Goldwater, who rested in Phoenix Monday, opens his first major campaign swing in San Diego, Calif., today. Johnson, Humphrey and Miller all returned to Washington.

Johnson spoke at an AFL-CIO-sponsored Labor Day rally in Detroit's Cadillac Square, the place where Democratic candidates have begun their campaigns since 1948.

"Make no mistake," Johnson said Monday. "There is no such thing as a conventional nuclear weapon."

Miller, campaigning in Indiana, told a Labor Day audience in South Bend that working men would benefit from a Republican administration through tax cuts and protection of jobs from foreign competition.

"Our administration will refuse to toy with dangerous programs in the field of tariffs and immigration which could well destroy our labor market," Miller said.

Weather Scientist Says A-Blasts Upset Patterns

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Dr. Charles Abbot of the Smithsonian Institution says weather repeats itself generally nearly every 23 years but that patterns are upset by nuclear bomb explosions in the atmosphere.

The 92-year-old scientist said in an interview that after such things as the Russian nuclear testing of 1959 it takes several years for a return to normal.

Dr. Abbot says the master period for weather is 273 months, just short of 23 years. Within this span, he says there are periods of 4 months to 91 months which also fall into a pattern.

His computations for long range forecasting, the Smithsonian expert said, require 220 tables and take two to three weeks for a specific area depending on prior occurrences.

Dr. Abbot said he has used such factors as the water level in Lake Huron for a long range forecast. He said that about 25 years ago he was able to predict with success a drought in the 1950s, in part because of the Huron water level.

He also predicts droughts in the 1970s, starting about 1975 and lasting 10 years, and an even bigger one in the 2020s.

Dr. Abbot says some of his forecasts have been unexpected, but were proven by time. About a year and a half ago, he said, he sent forecasts to Japan predicting good rainfall. Japan at that time was experiencing drought. A short time later, Dr. Abbot related, he read of rains totaling up to 17 inches in Japan.

And in 1948, he continued, he forecast weather for prospective wedding dates for a group of Washington area brides. "I told 13 their days would be fair, and told one that on her day it might rain. The 13 were fair, and the other one was cloudy, but it did not rain."

THE LAST OF THE AGNEWS OF MARSH CREEK

In summing up the genealogical data pertaining to the Agnews, of the Marsh Creek Settlement, a survey of the family burial plot in the Lower Marsh Creek churchyard is very essential to an understanding of their genealogy.

All of the Agnew graves appear to be marked, with but one exception which has already been pointed out. In previous columns all of the tombstone inscriptions have been given — but one.

10. "Here Lies The — Body of Ephraim — Agnew who departed this life — July the 31st 1770 — Aged 3 years and 3 months."

Note: — Ephraim Agnew is an unknown twig on the Agnew family tree. Since he is buried in the family plot he was probably a grandson of James (1) Agnew, the pioneer.

Some early history on the Agnew clan is given in "Eggle's Notes and Queries" as follows: — "The Earls of Tyrone and Tyrconnel, in the Province of Ulster, Ireland, conspired against the government in the reign of King James I of England. The two Earls were attainted and their vast estates, which contained about five hundred thousand acres of land, became the property of the crown. The king divided the properties into small tracts and offered these to colonists from Scotland or elsewhere — on the condition that they settle on them within four years with a certain number of tenants.

"Three Agnew brothers came from Scotland during the later 'Covenant' persecutions and located in Ulster. One settled at Craigmore, County Antrim; another Donegore, and the third in the County of Tyrone.

"One of the Agnews, who settled at Craigmore, came to America in 1717-18 and settled in Philadelphia, in William Penn's province. The sons of James Agnew (1), James Agnew, the second, and Samuel Agnew, lived at Donegal in Lancaster County. They afterwards moved from Donegal and settled permanently in the 'Manor of the Masque' in 1739.

"James Agnew, actually the second of the name but the pioneer member of the family in the Marsh Creek Settlement, was born in Great Britain on July 31, 1711 and emigrated to America in 1717-18 in company with his father, James Agnew of Balloo, Ulster Ireland."

In any study of the Agnew genealogy the name of Samuel Agnew, the brother of James Agnew of the Marsh Creek Settlement, is bound to "pop up." The official genealogist of the clan in her "Book of the Agnews" for some reason or other completely ignores this branch of the family tree but, like Banquo's ghost, the pioneer Samuel

Agnew refuses to take a "back seat."

According to a fairly reliable tradition Samuel (1) Agnew is buried, with other members of his family, in the Upper Marsh Creek churchyard (now more commonly known as "Black's") and one Agnew grave marker still remains in place in that graveyard. It was mentioned in an earlier column and the inscription given. There is no reason to doubt the truth of this story — James Agnew, the pioneer settler, did have a brother, Samuel (1) Agnew.

In the Tom's Creek Presbyterian churchyard, located a short distance north of Emmitsburg, Maryland, in what is obviously a large family burial plot, there is a lone tombstone, which bears the following inscription: —

11. "To the memory of — James Agnew — who closed — An Amiable and Useful Life — animated with a lively Hope — of a blessed Immortality — on the 13th of December 1798 — In the 65th year of his Age."

This James Agnew was a son of Samuel (1) Agnew and therefore the nephew of James (1) Agnew. Undoubtedly other members of the family are interred in this plot but the tombstones of James (2) Agnew is the only one that remains. In his will, which was written December 12, 1778, and entered to probate February 8, 1799, James (2) Agnew mentions the following members of his family: —

1. Wife — Martha Agnew (usual provision made).
2. Grandson — James Hunter.
3. Grand-daughter — Martha Agnew McCreary "the daughter of my daughter, Jane Agnew McCreary."
4. Grandson — James Agnew McCreary.
5. Daughter — "Jane Agnew intermarried with James McCreary."
6. Son — James Agnew II.
7. Son — John Agnew.
8. Son — Andrew Agnew.
9. Son — David Agnew.

10. Grandchildren — James Hunter McCreary, Margaret Agnes McCreary, and James Agnew McCreary "the children of my daughter, Jane Agnew, intermarried with James McCreary."

James (2) Agnew states that he is a resident of "Hamilton's Bann Township," York County, (now Adams), Pennsylvania, and his will is recorded in Will Book "K", page 29, York County Courthouse.

Also buried at Tom's Creek, but in another plot, are two other members of the Agnew family: —

12. "In memory of — Mary Jane Agnew — wife to David Agnew — Died December 14th, 1886 — Aged 62 years, 6 months, and — 21 days."
13. "In memory of — David Agnew — Died September 1, 1888 — Aged 66 years and 8 months."

Note: — Undoubtedly a grandson of James (2) Agnew, probably a son of David (3) Agnew, the son of James (2) Agnew.

James (2) Agnew, in his will, mentions a grandson, James Hunter. Obviously one of his daughters married into the Hunter family. Members of that family are also buried at Tom's Creek.

14. "In memory of — A. Ross Hunter — Died September 10, 1879 — Aged 42 years and 9 months."

15. "In memory of — Jane Shields Hunter — wife of Joseph Hunter — Born May 4th, 1804 — Died March 22, 1882."

The notes on the Agnew family, of Tom's Creek, will be continued in this column next week.

MORE AGNEW GENEALOGY

The Agnew family, of the Marsh Creek Settlement, in what is now Adams (then York) County, appear to have made its influence felt — not only in time of peace but in war as well. Four of the sons of James (1) Agnew served as officers during the War of the American Revolution. The father took part in the French and Indian struggle.

David (2) Agnew, the third son and fourth child of James (1) and Rebecca (Scott) Agnew, was an ensign in the Second Battalion of the York County Militia commanded by Colonel Robert McPherson on March 19, 1775. Later on he served in the same capacity in the first "Hamilton Bann Township" company. As stated before David (2) Agnew married Mary Erwin and some 12 children were born to them. Eleven have already been listed in previous columns and the twelfth and last child — a son was 12. Gibson (3) Agnew — born August 3, 1796 — married Eleanor Smith — died . . . (?).

In her will, Mary (Erwin) Agnew-Dobbin, who outlived two husbands, David (2) Agnew and the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, mentions the following members of her family: —

1. "A stone to be erected at the grave of my first husband, David Agnew, in Lower Marsh Creek burial ground."
2. "A stone to be erected at the grave of my daughter, Rebecca (Agnew) Hayes . . ."
3. "A stone to be erected at the grave of my son, James Agnew, in the Lower Marsh Creek burial ground."
4. Son — Smith Agnew.
5. Son — Gibson Agnew.
6. Granddaughters — Harriet Rebecca Reed, Martha Helen Hayes, Susan Hayes, and Mary Ann Hayes.
7. Stepson — Matthew Dobbin.
8. Stepdaughter — Isabella Dobbin intermarried with John Edie Jr.
9. Granddaughter — Mary Agnew intermarried with James McKnight.
10. Grandson — John Ramsey.
11. Daughter — Martha (Agnew) Lashells.
12. Grandsons — John Lashells and Robert Lashells.
13. "The children of my son John Agnew, namely — David Agnew, Mary Jane Agnew, Rebecca Agnew, Ann Agnew and Elizabeth Agnew."
14. "Children of my daughter, Rebecca Agnew, deceased, formerly intermarried with Robert Hayes, namely — Susan Hayes, David Agnew Hayes, Alexander Hayes, Mary Jane Hayes, Rebecca Eliza Hayes, John Franklin Hayes, Martha Helen Hayes, and Elizabeth Hayes."

Mary (Erwin) Agnew-Dobbin states in her will that her daughter, Rebecca (Agnew) Hayes is buried in Lower Marsh Creek churchyard and that a stone is to be erected at her grave. This was undoubtedly done.

According to instructions, set forth in the same document, markers were also to be placed at the graves of David (2) Agnew and his son, James (3) Agnew. These stones are still in place and in good condition today but the grave of Rebecca (3) Agnew Hayes cannot be located for no stone remains to designate the spot. Probably she was buried in the Agnew family plot — but her grave-stone has long since disappeared.

Two additional notes pertaining to the family of David (2) and Mary (Erwin) Agnew, which appeared in the "Adams Centinel" — under the dates given —

LE GRANDE CHARLES
DeGaulle's Memoirs Are Poor History
But They Are Historically Significant

Twenty years ago an ambitious Frenchman's less-than-humble dreams came true. He believed his destiny was also that of France.

It was August 26, 1944. Charles de Gaulle was walking through the Arch of Triumph, down the Champs-Elysees between the chestnut trees to the accompaniment of hysterical spectators and followers. "At each step I took along the most illustrious avenue in the world," de Gaulle writes, "it seemed to me that the glories of the past were associated with today's."

I happened to be in Paris that day. By ducking along back streets in a jeep I was able to get ahead and study him and his growing crowd of tumultuous followers again and again. It was the chance of a lifetime. I wanted to see all of it.

But why was I riding when de Gaulle, the Great Liberator, was walking? True, there were few cars. All France was walking or riding bicycles. But de Gaulle could have had my jeep, complete with driver, for the asking. He saw it several times. His own Major General LeClerc, commanding the 2nd Free French Armored Division, then in the city, unquestionably had offered transportation.

The answer is obvious. I was a mere American field artillery colonel checking prospective routes for moving three battalions of heavy guns through the city. He was a French general in the process of seizing power from the chaos of a collapsed Third French Republic and a retreating German Army.

From the coup d'etat of the First Napoleon and through all the intervening regimes and governments, including the uncertain life of the Third Republic, there were always haunting, political fears of the military, of "the man on horseback," as in the Boulanger Affair. It occurred to me at the time that de Gaulle had learned one lesson from his nation's political history; i.e., if a French general expected to be successful in a seizure of power, he should do it on foot. A motorized, tall and stately, uniformed liberator rumbling down the Champs-Elysees would be "a man on horseback."

Moreover, for him to have appeared on this occasion in an American or British military vehicle, the image of the lone,

French liberator would have been flawed. De Gaulle's sense of destiny is often mentioned. In a practical way, it is less valuable than his sense of history and showmanship. It was in response to these instincts that de Gaulle was leading the tumultuous crowds on foot.

His sense of history is not of a sort that turns out memoirs that are reasonably accurate in matters of fact. Indeed, it is doubtful if de Gaulle could write a history that is reasonably accurate as to facts, allowing him the historian's rights for erroneous interpretations, if and when he chooses to go down the wrong speculative path. Were de Gaulle an artist, he would be a free-wheeling impressionist, because that is the way he writes.

Even so, his three books, "Call to Honour" (1955), "Unity" (1959) and "Salvation" (1960), are absolutely required reading for anyone who desires so much as a passing understanding of postwar France.

De Gaulle's publishers (Simon and Schuster) have seen fit to commemorate this twentieth anniversary of his return to Paris with an edition that binds all three books into one, handsome and convenient, thousand-page volume under a new title — "The Complete War Memoirs of Charles de Gaulle," $12.50.

For one periodical or another, I reviewed all three of those books at the time of their publication. There is a natural reluctance to indulge in warmed over reactions. But it might be well to report that in spot checking this edition against numerous corresponding pages of the original three volumes, no change whatsoever in text was found.

As impressionistic literature, the book is superb. As authentic history, it is worse than poor. But, being from the well of deeply felt emotions of one who has played a major role through our own turbulent era, it is a volume of great historical significance. De Gaulle's emotions explain much of modern France.

Police Drive Young Rioters From New Hampshire Resort

By HOLCOMB B. NOBLE
HAMPTON BEACH, N.H. (AP) — This seashore resort town was peaceful today after a Labor Day eve riot in which some 10,000 teen-agers battled state troopers, local police and National Guardsmen for four hours.

Authorities finally ran the young persons out of town Sunday night by forming human wedges and walking from the beach area in the center of town to either end.

POLICE BLAME PARENTS

Some 200 persons were arrested. Twenty were injured.

Police couldn't explain the reasons for the rioting, but Robert W. Rhodes, commissioner of public safety in New Hampshire, blamed the youths' parents for a lack of discipline in the home.

"The parents have stepped aside and have left their children to the teachers and to the police," Rhodes said.

There were some reports of police brutality in the wake of a score of injured — one seriously. But Gov. John W. King said flatly:

"You can't blame police for lack of parental discipline. The police leaned over backward not to use brutality."

SHOT IN FACE

One boy, Peter Zaniboni, 16, of Everett, Mass., was hit in the face with a load of birdshot from a police shotgun and doctors said he probably would lose the sight of his right eye.

Damage was counted in the thousands of dollars as merchants began cleaning up from the four-hour rioting. The revelers, having a final fling before school opens this week, threw rocks, garbage, beer bottles and cans filled with sand and set fire to some buildings while smashing windows along the beachfront.

"It was too well planned and organized to have been a spontaneous affair stimulated by beer and drinking," said Rhodes.

PLANNED "RUMBLE"

He and other police officials said youths had passed out leaflets and notes inviting other young persons "for the big rumble."

The governor said the riot was a "symptom of a moral sickness in American youth which is potentially explosive."

King said he hoped the courts would not "mollycoddle" the 200 persons arrested during the rioting.

It took a force of 250 heavily armed police and militiamen with fixed bayonets to restore order.

Police began today to take to court the 200 who were arrested on charges of inciting a riot, rioting, disorderly conduct and drunkenness. Many of those arrested were released on bail for court appearances in the next couple of weeks.

PARENTS CALL POLICE

King had ordered the National Guard, and deputized reinforcements of Massachusetts and Maine state troopers to help quell the riot.

Police reported receiving dozens of calls Monday from parents of youngsters of 15 or 16, asking if they were among those hurt or arrested.

"Some of them didn't even know where their children were," said Rhodes.

U. S. JET PILOT DIES IN CRASH

TOKYO (AP) — Two U.S. jet fighter planes crashed southwest of Tokyo Tuesday, killing one pilot and three Japanese factory workers.

An F8 Navy Crusader piloted by Lt. R. C. Schoeder, Rochester, Minn., crashed while taking off from Atsugi Naval Station about 40 miles southwest of Tokyo. It plowed into a small factory, killing three workers and injuring four other Japanese.

Schoeder bailed out. He said in a statement he had aimed his plane at an open area surrounded by trees and did not realize there was a factory beyond.

U.S. Ambassador Edwin O. Reischauer called on Vice Foreign Minister Takio Oda to extend condolences.

About an hour earlier an Air Force F105 crashed on the banks of the Sagami River near

BRITISH CLAIM WEST GERMANS BLOCK TRADING

By PRESTON GROVER
LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP) — Western traders — especially the British — are courting Communist East Germany's business. They say West Germany is trying to block them.

The traders are here in large numbers for the autumn Leipzig Trade Fair, largest in the Communist world. One of the most vocal complaints about West German opposition came from Brunaby Drayson, Conservative member of the British Parliament from a Yorkshire agricultural area.

In an interview, Drayson said the West Germans are trying by political and other means to keep Western countries from trading with East Germany. He said British businessmen were insisting on a fair share of the market.

TRADE IN POTASH

West Germany is the biggest Western trader with East Germany. Total trade both ways ran to about $437 million last year. West German officials, although insisting on official nonrecognition of the Communist regime, contend trade is a domestic matter and may help achieve German reunification.

The British buy most of East German potash exports, about 6 million tons a year. Drayson said the East Germans are prepared to shave the price a few shillings per ton below what suppliers from other countries are asking.

Drayson said the quality of East German potash is exactly the same as West German potash since both countries are mining it from the same fields.

Drunken Driver Is Held In 2 Deaths

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A drunken driving charge has been placed against Milton C. Forrest in the deaths of a 13-year-old Palmyra, Pa., girl and her infant nephew.

The victims, Clara Stoner and 18-month-old Robert Leonard, were run down on a Jacksonville street Saturday as the girl pushed the tot in a stroller. Three-year-old Thomas Leonard, who was walking alongside, was brushed by the car but escaped serious harm.

Forrest, 54, is a civilian machinist at the Jacksonville Naval Air Station.

The Stoner girl was to attend school in Jacksonville. She was a sister of Mrs. Melvin Leonard, mother of the two youngsters. Leonard is a Navy man stationed at Cecil Field.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's speech, formally opening his presidential bid, contained no surprises but was rather a kind of foundation for what he can say later in the campaign.

This speech Thursday was a roundup of positions he has stated before. For this reason, because it touched so many bases, it was short on details. If he doesn't go into details later, the Democrats will probably challenge him to.

Goldwater has been accused of shooting from the hip and once admitted this may be so.

Thursday he bore down hard on his peaceful intentions, called the Republicans the "peace party," and made peace a steady theme in his talk.

MOST WAS REPEAT

Because so much he said was a repetition in one form or another of what he had said before this speech at Prescott, Ariz., was not exactly fiery but, in the process, he put a lot of pieces together and can work on them later.

He promised, if elected, to end the draft "as soon as possible." He said the armed forces need trained volunteers. As early as last February he said he thought the peacetime draft could be ended.

A couple of months after he had said that President Johnson ordered a study of the draft system and said the study group would consider the possibility of ending selective service within a decade.

OTHER OLD CHARGES

When he said "the shadow of scandal falls, unlighted yet by answers, across the White House itself," Goldwater was following up what he himself had said weeks ago:

That the "dark shadow of scandal that hangs over the White House itself" would be one of the main issues in the campaign. So far he has not gone beyond this generalized statement. He hasn't spelled out details of any scandal.

He accused the Johnson administration of "dismantling" American defenses, a charge he has made before. It's been denied by the administration. But Goldwater continues to bang away at it.

WON'T ABANDON AGED

The senator said Republicans "shall never abandon the needy and the aged — we shall never forsake the helpless. We understand their problems in our hearts."

"But we know that a true and lasting solution of those problems cannot be found in degrading, capricious and politically motivated handouts from the White House. It must ultimately be found in a thriving and compassionate economy principally handled by the levels of government closest to the people."

AGAINST MEDICARE

This week, when the Senate approved a program of medical care for the aged through Social Security, Goldwater voted against it with this explanation in part: "My fundamental objection to this proposal is that it is based on the unspoken premise that American workers, whether in the $5,000 or $50,000 class, are incapable of deciding how to spend their money. It reveals a contempt for the intelligence and judgment of our people."

He said his "no" vote was "consistent with the position I have taken" continuously against such a medical care program. He had complained before that this kind of program detracts from the responsibility of the family.

FAVORITE THEME

"I don't want to see the American family broken up by the federal government," he had said.

Without going into detail he repeated indirectly another favorite theme: That the government must withdraw from a number of programs.

He put it this way: "Prudence requires that we proceed slowly and steadily in withdrawing the central government from its many unwarranted interventions in our private economic lives."

In his book, "The Conscience of a Conservative," Goldwater said: "I have little interest in streamlining government or making it more efficient, for I mean to reduce its size. My aim is not to pass laws but to repeal them. I do not undertake to promote welfare, for I propose to extend freedom."

And he added: "The government must begin to withdraw from a whole series of programs that are outside its constitutional mandate."

There will be plenty of time in this campaign for Goldwater to explain in detail how he would carry out his promises in these various fields.

"We'd like to get together and cooperate with you if there are any plans for enlarging your system. We don't want to build small plants if we can avoid them."

PRAISE FROM MAYOR

Council President Philip M. Jones said that "to sit down and talk could be a help to both Cumberland Twp. and Gettysburg."

Mayor William G. Weaver congratulated the sewer committee and Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner on the storm sewer on E. High St. Mayor Weaver said he had checked the area during the first heavy rain that had fallen since the installation and found it "worked very well."

Councilman John Welshonce said he also had checked the operation of the storm sewer during the heavy rain and agreed the "situation was good all the way out High St."

Council approved a deed from the Reading Railway Co. for the street now owned by the Railway extending from N. Washington St. just north of the railroad, to Constitution Ave. Councilman Robert McCoy was authorized to sign for the borough in the transfer of the 50-foot right of way to the town.

TO AMESITE STREETS

Approval was given for the expenditure of up to $500 for repair to the Tiber between Carlisle and N. Stratton Sts.

Councilman McCoy reported plans to place amesite on S. Washington St. from Steinwehr Ave. to the hospital and on E. Middle from Baltimore to Liberty Sts. starting September 21. Council gave approval Monday to also place a topping of amesite on the first block of Queen St.

Council ordered a 10-day notice sent to the owner to place a curb along one side of Victor St. to permit completion of a street there to a newly constructed home. The curbing has been placed on the other side of the street according to reports to council.

ASK CROSSING REPAIRS

The borough secretary was asked to write the Reading and Western Maryland Railways asking them to check street surfaces at the various street crossings in the town and drains at the crossings and make repairs where needed.

Borough Building Official Charles Kuhn outlined to council the requirements of Section 400.5 of the town's building code and suggested the possibility of a change which would cover such temporary wooden structures in Lincoln Square as Santa's Shanty. At present, under the code as it stands, such structures are illegal.

Finance Committee Chairman John Welshonce reported that a certificate of deposit for $12,780 comes due September 20 and suggested that that amount, plus the $511 interest that will be paid on it, plus $6,708.80 from the general fund, to make a total of $20,000, be placed on a certificate of deposit for one year. Council authorized such action.

Purchase of a complete uniform for the new policeman was authorized.

ASK BIDS FOR CAR

Approval was given for the Highways committee to try out a machine which will place Scotlite tape on present street signs, instead of repainting them. The committee was asked to determine how much has been spent during the last five years for repainting signs.

The finance committee was authorized to advertise for bids for a new police car. Prior bids had been received some time ago. After discussion indicated that 1964 cars, on which the bids were made, have now been replaced by the 1965 autos, the borough secretary was asked to notify the prior bidders that because of the time lapse new bids will be asked.

A letter was read from the Gettysburg Retail Merchants asking free parking for Sales Days and the "last three days of the Christmas shopping season." The letter was turned over to committee with the committee asked to report at the next meeting of council.

SHASTRI FACES RED - INSPIRED FIGHT IN PARTY

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Deserted by some members of his own party, Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri is in deep political trouble just three months after assuming the leadership of India.

The nation's stability will depend on how well this shy, unassuming man fights back against Communist-led opponents of his government and how well he handles a food crisis affecting millions.

Trouble has been mounting rapidly since Shastri succeeded the late Prime Minister Nehru June 9 and then in August fought back from a disabling heart ailment.

RED MANEUVERS

Shastri's prestige and position within his own ruling Congress party took its heaviest blow yet Tuesday.

The party's state government in the southern Communist bastion of Kerala collapsed on a no-confidence motion the Reds rammed through the legislature. In New Delhi, a united front of Communists, Socialists and right-wing Hindus stepped up their attack on Shastri's food policies. Parliament will vote later this week on a motion of no confidence against the prime minister.

The Congress party's big majority assures the defeat of the motion, but Congress members themselves were voicing some of the harshest criticism hurled at Shastri.

FOOD CRISIS

Congress member A.C. Guha of West Bengal declared the nation's reserves of food grains are gone and the food situation is the worst since the great Bengal famine killed millions in 1943.

The prime minister's opponents in the party hierarchy are grumbling that he is not tough enough to control the situation. This was the main argument of rightwinger Morarji Desai when he contested the selection of Shastri as Nehru's successor.

Desai, known for his toughness, is again being mentioned as the man to take over.

STREET BRAWLS

Food demonstrations continue throughout India. Rival groups of Kashmiri nationalists brawled in the streets of Srinagar.

Much of northern India is covered by the worst floods in 40 years.

Sources close to Shastri say he is planning stern action.

By the end of the week he is expected to dissolve the Kerala legislature and set up a state government controlled by New Delhi. The Communists are expected to retaliate with demonstrations.

Ready To Rush Food To Hurricane Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department is ready to rush surplus foods to any area in the path of Hurricane Dora if normal food distribution channels are disrupted.

During the last fiscal year the department donated food to victims of hurricanes, the Ohio River flood, the Alaskan earthquake and other disasters of nature.

BARRY'S AIDE IS NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard Kleindienst, field director of Sen. Barry Goldwater's successful bid for the GOP presidential nomination, won Arizona's Republican gubernatorial race as six states held primary elections Tuesday.

Kleindienst trounced Evan Mecham, Phoenix publisher and auto dealer, in his bid to succeed Gov. Paul Fannin. Fannin was unopposed for the GOP nomination to the Senate seat Goldwater has held for 12 years.

Across the nation, in New Hampshire, Republicans apparently ended the political career of former Gov. Wesley Powell. He lost the GOP gubernatorial primary to John Pillsbury.

Renominated with ease were Sens. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., William Proxmire, D-Wis., and Govs. John King, D-N.H., John W. Reynolds, D-Wis., and Philip Hoff, D-Vt.

Here is a rundown on key

ARIZONA

Kleindienst was 15,000 votes ahead of Mecham on returns from about half of the state's precincts. His Democratic opponent in November will be Sam Goddard, who lost to Fannin in 1962. Fannin's senatorial foe will be Roy Elson, for 10 years administrative assistant to Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz. Elson defeated former State Supreme Court Justice Renz Jennings and four others.

Kleindienst had resigned from Goldwater's campaign to make his first bid for elective office.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Powell conceded to Pillsbury as counting passed the halfway mark. The former governor said he would back Pillsbury in the general election, a contrast to 1962 when he supported King.

VERMONT

Lt. Gov. Ralph A. Foote edged former Lt. Gov. Robert S. Babcock for the GOP gubernatorial nomination against Gov. Hoff. Sen. Prouty will be opposed by State Sen. Frederick J. Fayette who defeated former Rep. William H. Meyer in the Democratic primary.

MINNESOTA

McCarthy swamped two foes and also outpolled Republican Wheelock Whitney, his November opponent.

WISCONSIN

Reynolds swamped Milwaukee attorney Dominic Frinzi in the Democratic gubernatorial race, while Warren P. Knowles held a 2-to-1 lead on the GOP side over Milo Knutson, five-term mayor of La Crosse and a staunch supporter of Goldwater who had said he would accept votes and funds from the John Birch Society. Proxmire easily outpolled two opponents, but his vote total was below that of unopposed GOP nominee Wilbur Renk.

COLORADO

There were no senatorial or gubernatorial races. All four House members were renominated.

Roosevelt Taylor of the Chicago Bears and Dick Lynch of the New York Giants both intercepted nine passes in National Football League games last season.
